

Money Idioms Worksheet

Instructions: Underline the idiomatic expressions in the sentences and write the meanings.

Sentences with Idioms / Phrases	Meaning
Corrupt cops are a dime a dozen in this city.
Could I have a penny for your thoughts? I don't know how to solve this problem.
That new car costs an arm and a leg.
Sara was born with a silver spoon, but she became a drug addict.
Designing websites is his bread and butter.
She broke the bank after buying the Ferrari.
Louie brings home the bacon while his wife takes care of the kids.
I burned a hole in my pocket overpaying on insurance.
He cashed in the chips and went on a world tour.
He's such a cheapskate. He never buys anything for his girlfriend.
Why don't you chip in and support the refugees?
Let's cook the books so we can avoid paying higher taxes.
The family had to cut corners in order to put food on the table.
I'll foot the bill and pay for everyone's meal at the restaurant.
The student asked to take the test again, but the teacher gave no quarter.

Connor is going to give Floyd a run for his money.
The couple always likes to go Dutch and share their living expenses.
Government workers ride the gravy train while sitting at their desks doing nothing.
I bet she's going to arrive late to work again.
You took the lion's share of the money. All I got was a couple pennies.
During the depression, we had to live from hand to mouth.
She has a huge nest egg, so she doesn't have to work anymore.
The team had to pay a king's ransom for the superstar.
Victor is such a penny pincher. He never buys anything for anyone.
Betting on an injured horse is like pouring money down the drain.
Can I put in my two cents? I have something important to say.
You should put your money where your mouth is and start your new business idea.
Jake went from rags to riches after he won the lottery.
You should save for a rainy day. You could get injured or become unemployed.
We can't wait here all day. Time is money!	